TERMS & CONDITIONS OF BOOKING A DEBRA UK HOLIDAY HOME

POLICY STATEMENT

DEBRA is committed to providing a fair and accessible booking procedure for the allocation of DEBRA UK holiday homes to DEBRA members.

Bookings for the UK holiday homes are subject to DEBRA's booking terms & conditions which must be read and agreed to before a booking is made.

PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY

To provide a transparent outline of the terms, conditions, and procedure for booking a stay in a DEBRA holiday home whilst promoting high standards and adhering to regulations including health, safety and holiday park rules which will ultimately ensure the best experience is offered to our members.

To ensure fair and appropriate expenditure of DEBRA funds; the holiday homes are heavily subsidised for members.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all DEBRA members and any other authorised users of DEBRA holiday homes. Information within this document will act as guidance to all members wishing to book a holiday home.

OBJECTIVE

DEBRA aims to provide holidays in the DEBRA holiday homes to enrich the lives of members living with EB through a fair, clear, timely and consistent approach.

POLICY DETAILS

1. Who can use the holiday homes?

- 1.1 The DEBRA holiday homes are primarily for the use of individuals and families living directly with EB and who are current members of DEBRA. However, the holiday homes can also be used during low season by those DEBRA members not living with EB. Booking details for members not living with EB can be found in section 16 below.
- 1.2 DEBRA reserves the right to refuse any booking that, in the charity's opinion, may be unsuitable, before or after booking confirmation has been received, either by reasons of numbers, composition, false declaration or the omission of a declaration of information that the charity deems makes the booking to be unsuitable. Any refund will be at DEBRA's discretion.

2. Booking terms

- 2.1 Each DEBRA holiday home Booking Form must name all persons who will be present throughout the duration of the holiday (including children).
- 2.2 During high season (see DEBRA website for dates), bookings must include at least one person who has EB and who is a current member of DEBRA (exceptions may be made for bereaved family members). The name of the person with EB must be stated on the booking form and they must be present throughout the holiday dates booked.
- 2.3 One week's holiday per year is allowed per DEBRA member living with EB. DEBRA may in its absolute discretion consider applications for a booking of a further second separate week for dates in low (off peak) season, subject to availability.
- 2.5 Family members living at the same address who wish to stay in a DEBRA holiday home, regardless of who makes the booking within that family, must adhere to the relevant priority booking date.

- 2.6 Only those named on the DEBRA holiday home Booking Form or subsequent documentation may occupy the holiday home. DEBRA must be advised of any name changes prior to the holiday start date.
- 2.7 Under no circumstances may persons other than the persons named in the booking form or notified to DEBRA (as detailed above) occupy the holiday home. DEBRA and the Holiday Park staff (all of whom are authorised by DEBRA in this regard) may refuse entry to both the Holiday Park and to the holiday home by any unauthorised personnel.
- 2.8 The benefit of the booking cannot be transferred to any other group, party or individual without the written approval of DEBRA.
- 2.9 The holiday home is located on a site not owned by DEBRA. The site has its own Rules and Regulations governing use by guests and visitors, which you must observe. It is therefore important that you, as hirer, make sure that you and all other users of the holiday home find out immediately on arrival what these Rules and Regulations are and ensure that they are observed. It is a condition of the acceptance of your booking that this will happen. If you wish to see the current version of these Rules and Regulations before you book a copy will be supplied on request but the contents of these Rules and Regulations are outside DEBRA's control and may be changed from time to time without our knowledge.

3. How to become a DEBRA member

In such circumstances Holiday Park staff may involve the police and/or require that you and/or any members of your party leave the Holiday Park immediately. No refunds will be given in these circumstances, and we reserve the right to cancel DEBRA membership and neither the hirer nor their family will be allowed to occupy a DEBRA holiday home in the future.
- 27.2 You are reminded that the holiday home is located on a site not owned by DEBRA. The site has its own Rules and Regulations which may change from time to time during the season governing use by visitors which you must observe. It is therefore important that you as hirer make sure that you and all other users of the holiday home find out immediately on arrival what these Rules are and ensure that they are observed. It is a condition of the acceptance of your booking that this will happen.

28. Day of departure

- 28.1 The holiday home should be left in the same clean, tidy, and undamaged state as it was found on arrival. The hirer shall ensure that crockery and cutlery is washed and put away in the appropriate cupboards. - 30.2 You must indicate on the DEBRA booking form that you would like to take a dog with you if you are staying at Weymouth Red or Brynteg, as this will incur an additional charge of £60 for a deep clean to carpets and upholstery. - 32.2 Neither DEBRA nor the Holiday Park shall have any liability for any complaint submitted after the completion of the hire period. Subjective opinions are not considered as a complaint, for example complaining that the beds are not comfortable or not liking the décor, as these may be one person's opinion but not the opinion of someone else.

33. Private insurance

- 33.1 The holiday home rental cost does not include any personal insurance cover of any kind. Your home insurance may or may not cover you and your belongings whilst you are on holiday, but it is unlikely to cover accidents, medical expenses, or losses due to cancellation. It is the hirers responsibility to ensure they have appropriate insurance cover.

34. Liability

- 34.1 DEBRA does not accept liability for any act neglect or default on the part of themselves or their representatives or any other person not within their employ or otherwise under their control nor for any accident loss costs expenses injury expense or any other inconvenience or claim for compensation whatsoever, whether to person or property and whether caused by DEBRA, their employees or agents or otherwise, which the hirer or any other person named in the Booking Form or their guests or any other person may suffer or incur arising out of, or in any way connected with this hiring. In addition, DEBRA and their representatives accept no liability whatsoever for any loss of or damage to any personal possessions in the holiday home or any other part of the Holiday Park.
- 34.2 Nothing in these conditions excludes or limits the liability of DEBRA or their representatives for any loss damage injury nuisance or inconvenience in relation to which the law prevents DEBRA excluding liability.
- 34.3 In all cases, except as above-mentioned, our liability for the total of all claims arising out of the hiring is limited to the Hire Charge.

35. Communicating with you

- 35.1 We respect your privacy and will not pass any unnecessary details on to any third party, except for your name and contact details and the ages of any children under the age of 18. Where key release forms are required by the holiday park further details such as address and vehicle registration details may be required.
